

Astaxanthin-d6

Art. ID TRC-A790027-100MG
Unit 100 mg

Description

Application Note: Astaxanthin-d6, is the labeled analogue of Astaxanthin (A790025), a carotenoid pigment found mostly in animal organisms, but also occurring in plants, thought to be the precursor of astacin. Animal studies indicate that it reduces blood glucose and ameliorates several parameters of the diabetic metabolic syndrome. It improves blood flow and vascular tone in models of hypertension.
